Dedication

We proudly dedicate our year book to Miss Ida Cardamone, whose tireless work, patience and ability have been our inspiration. Our years of study under her guidance have been pleasant as well as fruitful. For these we give our undying thanks with the hope that she may have many more years to inspire the future classes of Franklin High.

MERCER — Playing under a new coach, the team downed a stubborn Mercer team by scoring the winning touchdown. It was the first time in years that we opened with a victory. (13-6).

WARREN — A game in which the boys looked very good but lost a heart-breaker. (16-14).

MEADVILLE — Meadville played inspired ball to defeat us. (33-0).

CORRY — Bouncing back hard, we played the best ball game of the year to break a 21 game winning streak of the Beavers. (6-0).

GIRARD — After a slow first half in which Girard threatened to score a couple of times, we broke lose in the 2nd half to score a victory. (13-0).

GROVE CITY — Solving the short punt formation proved difficult for the Knights. Petrarca, one of the best backs we faced all year, had much to do with the loss we suffered. (24-0).

UNION TOWNSHIP — Scoring three times in the first half gave us another victory of the year (19-0).

TITUSVILLE — Within the first five minutes of the game we were behind 12-0. We outplayed Titusville the rest of the game but were able to score only seven points. (12-7).

KANE — We played a good ball game but lost in the closing seconds of the game. (13-12).

OIL CITY — Hoping to keep Oil City without a victory for the year, we took to the field in high hopes of winning but the running of Wood and Winger was too much. (26-7).

Class Will

We, the Class of 1955 of Franklin Junior Senior High School, being of square mind and squashed bodies, do make and declare this our last will and testament.

To our successors, the Class of 1956, we leave our homerooms. You may have our lockers, provided you accept all trash that may be in them. The gum we have left under our desks is for your use; consequently, there are all flavors. To our class advisor Miss Cardamone we leave many thanks for all the patience she has had with us.

As individuals we leave the following:
Mick Ahern leaves his slide rule to anyone who can figure it out.
Terrell Atwell and Robert Billingsley leave hot dish water at the cafeteria to anyone wanting experience as an army cook.
Barbara Barnes leaves her "tinkling on the bells" to Jimmy Jones.
Ethel Bean leaves school for good this year.
Barbara Beck leaves her flirting ways to anyone who can do it without getting caught.
Warren Billingsley leaves to venture into the outside world.
Ann Boughner and Marlee Conklin leave to further their Education.
Julia Boughner and Jane Eakin leave to Betty Miller their seat in English class.
To anyone lucky enough to have it, Fay Brenneman and Helen Lorraine Fogle bequeath their "red hair."
To Jack Mays, Dick Brink bequeaths his "lady killing" ways.
Willard Broms leaves with his boots on.
Kenneth Brown leaves all the women.

Tom Brown leaves a square inch of land in the Yukon to any able-bodied prospector in the Junior class.
To Leora Sharrer, Beverly Burgert leaves her place with Mr. Wise.
Boogie Burgert leaves her rides in the "black diesel" to Bob Muse.
Chuck Butters leaves to spend more time with Georgia.
To Bill Whitmer, Bill Campbell bequeaths his parking place.
Donna Canon wills her driving to Mary Power.
Don Carson leaves his little June behind.
Bud Carter leaves his stories to Lee Baker.
To Bill Orr, Fred Cauvel bequeaths his talent in woodshop.
John Chamberlain leaves the Commercial classes with all the girls.
Faye Chatley leaves Stoneboro to anyone fool enough to go there.
Joanne Cherry leaves for her brother Chuck to carry on.

Nancy Cross wills her shyness to anyone who can use it to their advantage.
Evelyn Dalmaso leaves her seat in band to Tom Moses. Make sure you use it.
To Erma Jean Harris, Lillie Davis bequeaths her personality.
Ron Deeter wills his shyness to Jerry Smeal.
To Reggie Smith, Don Deets bequeaths his homeroom, 211.
Linda Dingman and Peggy Porter leave their "Liberace candles" to Susan Heasley and Joyce Andre.
To Bill Whitmer, Bob Ditzenberger bequeaths his "careful" way of driving.
Mary Doll leaves to spend her time with Tom.
Savinna Doverspike leaves to be with her husband.
Charles Fellner neaves all of the Buick to Bill Whitmer.
Margaret Fellner leaves her empty seat in English to her sister Shirley.
To Dave Hixon, Errol Frailey leaves his position on the Franklinite Staff.
Verla Fulmer leaves her seat in chemistry class to Margie Thomas.
Bob Gillingham leaves Mrs. Davis with regret.
To Bud Miller, Ronnie Graner leaves his "beard."
Peggy Lou Grove leaves her locker mirror even though it is in a dozen pieces to her sister Anna.
Walt Heffern leaves typing to any new adventurer.
Vida Henry leaves the art room.
Mary Hogue leaves her general math book to anyone who wants it.
George Hook leaves!!!!
Bob Hoover leaves his reckless driving to Jack Mays.
Gerald Hovis leaves his talent to Bill Orr.
Ben Hughes leaves Oil City and what's in it to Susie and Bonita.
Jim Johnston leaves the women.
Chuck Jones leaves . . . well, he leaves anyway.
Patricia Keeley leaves her seat in typing.
Peggy Kelley leaves her pleasure rides through curb market to anyone who likes to break eggs.
Areta Knooihuizen leaves any extra boy friends she might have to her sister Jo-Ann.
Jack Kunselman leaves his driving to Clair Cotterman.
To Elissa Scrudders, Marlene Lang bequeaths her dark but natural blonde hair.
Janet LeGrand leaves her position on the Franklinite staff to a fellow worker—Jack Gracy.
Carol List and Pat Nicklin leave their music ability to Chuck Bark.
Martha Maitland wills her trips around town to Peggy Merck.
Bill Mays leaves for the Navy.

Susie McCarter leaves her natural blonde hair to Susie Harter.
Cyrena McCarty leaves her place on the projector club to any Junior girl who can take care of it.
Nancy McClelland and Kay Temple leave for Indiana.
To Richard Thompson, Bill McDaniel leaves his ability in mechanical drawing.
Carol McGinty leaves her drak short hair to Mary Jane Foster.
To Mary Power, Mary McGinty bequeaths her "cowgirl driving."
Glenn McIntire leaves his height to Ronnie Cartwright.
Jack Merck leaves Kay to wander the hall by herself.
Carroll Miller leaves in the glitter of her diamond.
George Minnigh leaves his seat in mechanical drawing to anyone.
Don Mitchell and Dennis Morris leave together.
John Montgomery leaves his all night fishing to Jim Miller, provided he can stay awake.
To Dick Rhoads, Jim Moorehead bequeaths his wrestling ability.
Betty Morrison, Esther Peterson, and Florence Paden leave the "gab sessions" to whoever is lucky enough to have homeroom 213.
Bill Murphy leaves his reputation of never handing in his news for the Broadcast on time to Jack Mays.
Anna Nicklin leaves Mr. Flath with clean blackboards.
Mike Olson leaves his centering to Bud Miller and hopes he does a better job of it.
Melissa Parker leaves to start her nursing career.
Mary Pastor leaves her seat in English class to her sister Frances.
Gloria Perry leaves to continue riding in a certain convertible.
Pep Peterson wills his fighting ability to Lee Gilliland.
Sonnie Pyle leaves her playing around with fire to anyone wanting to get burnt.
Little Frank Ramfos leaves his rough ways to Jackie Reed.
Harold Reed leaves his shorthand equipment to his sister Jane.
Florence Reib bequeaths her beautiful singing voice to Shirley Wolfe.
Rusty Reitz leaves his favorite razor to Bud Miller.
Jay Reynolds leaves his loving memories of his days at F.H.S. and a certain freshman.
Neil Rhines leaves Latin to anyone who can stay awake.
Dan Rhoads leaves the Student Council.
To Sally Burrell, Beverly Rice bequeaths her basketball ability.
Jim Rice leaves for Lee Baker to take over.
Ed Riddle leaves Mary.
Gerald Riddle leaves his car to anyone who can drive without second gear.
To Nancy Hall, Kitty Rivers bequeaths her height.
Mary Lou Rodgers leaves her "messy locker" to anyone who want it.
Patty Rose leaves GNIL GNIT GNOT to Susie McQuaide.
Effie Ruby wills her theme writing and chemistry book to Kathryn.
Beverly Russell leaves?????
To Saundra McElevy, Gail Sechler wills her back seat in speech.
Bryl Shaffer leaves 50 pounds to Pee Wee Stuck.
